About Anna

Anna Myers is the COO of Mission 10K and Grocapitus, overseeing a $660.4 Million portfolio of 4,400+ units across 25 projects in 11 states.

A third-generation real estate entrepreneur and former systems architect, Anna brings 25+ years of tech and business experience to managing and scaling data-driven real estate investments.

Together with Neal Bawa, she has raised $330M+ from 1,200+ investors, with 9 successful exits to date. Anna leads the firm's PropTech and FinTech strategy, building the systems that power investor growth and portfolio performance. She splits her time working from her base in South Florida or international countries within complementary timezones. She is currently based in Central America.
